💙🧠LIVING WITH DEMENTIA OR WORRIED ABOUT YOUR MEMORY? YOU ARE NOT ALONE! 💚
****

Whether you've recently received a dementia diagnosis, are concerned about your memory, or are supporting a loved one, help, advice and understanding are available. ❤️
We're delighted to welcome Sue Cann, Dementia Adviser from Beyond Dementia, to Malmesbury Primary Care Centre for a friendly and informative evening.
📆Thursday 19th November 2026
🕐6.00pm
📍Malmesbury Primary Care Centre
💬What to expect:
💚Find out about the support available through Beyond Dementia.

🤝Meet Sue and have the opportunity to ask questions or chat individually.
❤️Discover how local services can support people living with dementia, their families and carers.
🎶We'll also be joined by Lisa Williams from Hope and Harmony, a therapeutic, dementia-friendly choir, who will share information about the benefits of music and singing.
🌟You don't need to face dementia alone. Sometimes knowing where to turn and having someone to talk to can make all the difference.
💙Please share this post with anyone who might benefit. We look forward to welcoming you!
Please let our amazing team at reception know if you can make it!

Beyond Dementia

Wiltshire's dementia charity
Making moments matter

Are you or a loved one living with Dementia?

Have you had a recent diagnosis or have concerns about your memory?

You are not alone. Your local Dementia Adviser is here to support you.

Sue Cann – Dementia Adviser from Beyond Dementia will be here to talk about the kinds of support the Dementia Adviser service can provide.

Thursday 19th November – Malmesbury Primary Care Centre – 6pm

This will be a short talk followed by meet and greet – an opportunity to ask questions and chat with Sue individually.

Sue will be accompanied by Lisa Williams of Hope and Harmony choir – a therapeutic, dementia friendly choir.
